

Date: September, 5th 2023
Topic: FFs2 – Unit 4

Teacher's feedbacks

Task 1: Look and read the sentences. Then choose True or False.

1. There are some grapes.
2. There aren't any biscuit.
3. There isn't a pineapple.
4. There aren't any cherries.
5. There are some sandwiches.
6. There are some strawberries.
7. There is a watermelon.
8. There are some raspberries.
9. There is a bottle of water.
10. There isn't any rice.

Task 2: Read and choose the correct answer.

I have breakfast at eight o'clock. I eat some cereal with milk or bread with jam. I have lunch at one o'clock. I eat pizza or I have a hamburger. For dessert I have some fruit and I drink an orange juice. I have dinner at half past seven. I eat pasta or rice with vegetables.

I have breakfast at half past seven. I eat some cheese and eggs with toast. I have lunch at half past one. I eat a sandwich or a hotdog. I drink some juice and for dessert I have some yoghurt. I have dinner at half past eight. I have soup or some vegetables and sausages.

1. Has Lizzie got cereal and bread for breakfast?

2. Has Henry got burger and cheese for breakfast?

3. What has Henry got for lunch?

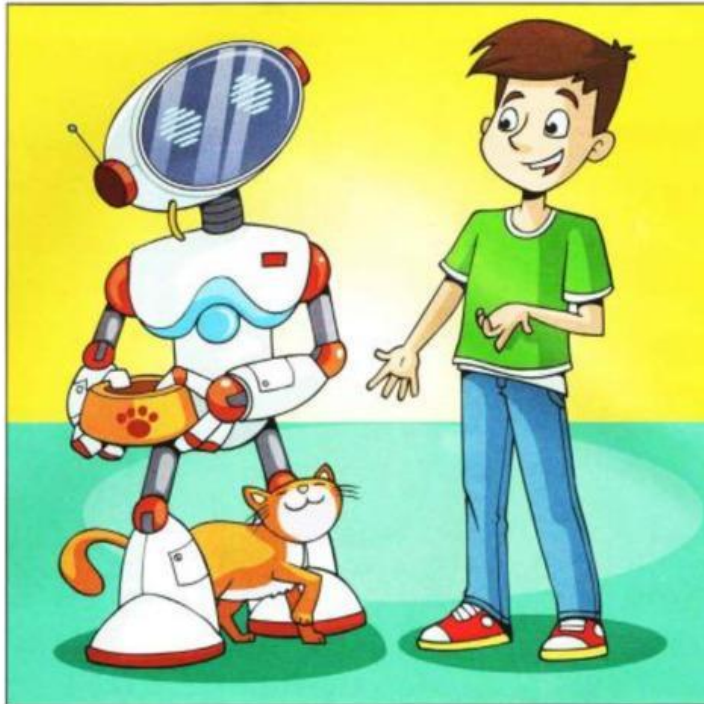

4. What has Lizzie got for dessert?

5. Has Henry got juice and yogurt for dessert?

6. What has Henry got for dinner?

7. What has Lizzie got for dinner?

Task 3: Listen and Write ONE WORD or NUMBER.

Questions

- 1 Which friend can the robot phone?
- 2 How many words can the robot say?
- 3 What is the name of the boy's cousin?
- 4 How many games can the robot play?
- 5 What is the cat's name?