

Director: Jack. Can I see you in my office?

Jack: Sure.

You have been late 3 times in the last 2 weeks. Is this going to be a continual problem?

I'm terribly sorry. I planned on coming to the office early today, but there was an accident that held up traffic.

You'd better start anticipating all problems because I'm not going to tolerate your tardiness any longer. Is that clear?

Perfectly clear. I will not be late again.

Okay. That's all.
