

Ages and Stages – Too Much, Too many, Too, Not Enough

A Fill in the first gap in the table (yellow) with the name of each stage.

You can choose from:

babies	toddlers	kids	teenagers
adults	middle-aged	In their twenties	old

Age	Description
60-65	When people reach the age of retirement they often have too much _____ and too much _____ in the house because their children have moved out.
1-2	_____ are _____ enough to walk but they aren't _____ enough to tie their own shoelaces.
40+	_____ people are too _____ to run around, and they often eat too much.
13-17	_____ are too _____ about exams. They always have too much _____ and too many _____ in school.
0-1	_____ are too _____ to go to school. They are too _____ to stand up.
20-29	People _____ don't have enough _____, and they have too many _____ to make about jobs and families.
2-12	_____ are too _____ to sit in a pram but they are too _____ to drive.
18+	_____ have too many _____ to pay, and too much _____ to do.
75+	_____ people get tired easily, and sometimes they aren't _____ enough to climb stairs.

B Fill in the adjectives with opposites

Adjectives

young	(stupid)	(tall)	weak	(relaxed)	(small)	(alert)

C Fill in the rest of the gaps in the table with either adjectives in blue or nouns from the table.

time	homework	choices	tests
work	bills	space	money