Reading activities.

1- Answer the following questions

Where is the coal deposit located?

Is potash deposit accessible?

Are there roads at Ontario's mine?

What mineral deposits are there in Utah?

2- Read the report and choose the correct answers.

1- What is the main purpose of the passage?

To advertise mines for sale
To determine the value of several mines
To report monthly production at mines
To recommend improvements at mines

2- Which of the following deposits is very deep?
Sand
Potash
Diamonds
Coal

3- Which mineral deposit is more accessible?
Gravel
Potash
Coal
Petroleum

3- Match the words to the definitions

Diamond	small round stones
Gypsum	a dark thick oil
Sand	a clear stone which is very hard and valuable
Gravel	a white or gray mineral often added to soil
Petroleum	very small pieces of rock , often found on beaches
Potash	a white powder containing potassium

LIVEWORKSHEETS