1 Listen and number the correct people.

11

Open to Learn

I think that humans cause these problems.
I'm sure that the ice is going to melt even more.

Emily

William

Peilin

Santiago

Water Issue	Opinion	Statement
1. access to clean water	1. I imagine that...	1. ... it's really important to save as much water as we can.
2. protecting whales	2. I think that...	2. ... if the coral reefs die, many fish and ocean creatures will die, too.
3. global warming	3. I'm sure that...	3. ... having clean water changes everything in people's lives.
4. saving water	4. I believe that...	4. ... if more people adopt whales, there will be more whales in the future.

Emily: Water Issue_____Opinion_____ Statement_____

William: Water Issue_____Opinion_____ Statement_____

Peilin: Water Issue_____Opinion_____ Statement_____

Santiago: Water Issue_____Opinion_____ Statement_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Open to Learn

If people have safe drinking water, they won't get sick.

2 Match the causes with the effects.

1. People drink dirty water.	a. Polar bears suffer.
2. The ocean gets warmer.	b. You get news about it.
3. The ice disappears.	c. Sea animals lose their habitats.
4. People clean up beaches.	d. They get sick.
5. You adopt an orca.	e. There is less trash in the oceans.

3 Unscramble the sentences.

1. If / they won't / children have / get sick. / safe drinking water,

   _____

   _____

2. to school. / get sick, / they will go / If / children don't

   _____

   _____

3. children go / learn about / to school, / the environment. / they will / If

   _____

   _____

4. know how / about the environment, / If / children learn / to protect it. / they will

   _____

   _____

4 Drag and drop to complete the sentences.

1. If people don't save water, _____.
2. If the oceans get too warm, _____.
3. If it doesn't rain enough, _____.
4. If all whales die, _____.

it will make earth less habitable for humans.

we will have to suffer from water shortage.

the ocean's food distribution will become destabilized.

a lot of our crops will be lost.

LIVEWORKSHEETS