Ryan's vacation to Mexico

Lily: How was your vacation to Mexico?

Ryan: It was very interesting. I learned a lot. In the center of Mexico City, we visited the ruins of a temple. Did you know that Mexico City was the capital of the Aztec empire in the fifteenth century, and had a population of over 200 thousand people?

Lily: Wow! That's amazing.

Ryan: Then we went to a place outside Mexico City to see the ancient pyramids.

Lily: Did you climb up?

Ryan: Only the Pyramid of the Sun. It was too hot.

Lily: What else did you do?

Ryan: We went snorkeling in Cozumel. I really enjoyed it.

Lily: And did you enjoy the food?

Ryan: Oh, yes. I love spicy food. But in Mexico, it was too hot, even for me. There, even the little kids eat chilis.
