

Complex Sentences

A complex sentence is made up from an independent clause (complete idea) and a dependent clause (incomplete idea).

Instructions: Choose the correct subordinating conjunction to complete each sentence.

1. My mother used to tell me stories _____ I went to bed.
a. since b. Until c. Before
2. She likes eating fried chicken _____ it's very bad for her health.
a. because b. although c. when
3. Yesterday, Jim was playing the piano _____ his mother was cooking.
a. as b. although c. While
4. You shouldn't spend too much time in computer _____ it is harmful for the eyes.
a. because b. when c. although
5. I will call you _____ I get home in the afternoon.
a. while b. when c. because
6. _____ you promise to not tell lies, we could be friends again.
a. because b. though c. if