

S28 - Listening 1-2

1. How do we really determine someone's character?
2. So if we are looking, let's say we are looking for a business partner
3. It creates patterns of behaviour that they can't even really control
4. And what you want are people with strong character
5. And can also has a good work ethic
6. They try to disguise it but they Reveal it
7. Circumstances made me do that
8. And you'll be likely to believe them
9. So, you want to be able to look at people's patterns and look at their past.
10. Some of it comes from our DNA
11. But in fact, your anger probably stems from things from deep deep within from your childhood
12. If you don't have that skill, you can throw it all out of the window

Vocabulary

| |
|--|
| |
|--|

| | | | | | |
|----------|----------|---------|--------|----------|--------|
| strength | reveal | seduce | offend | pattern | gossip |
| interact | patterns | respond | Base | Disguise | judge |

1. He can easily _____ you with his sweet words.
2. No one can _____ their true character.
3. You can see _____ of someone's character only through their behaviour.
4. I don't know what to _____ to you.
5. Sorry, I didn't mean to _____ you.
6. He can _____ with children really well.
7. After 7 years of work with psychologists I was finally able to break this _____.
8. I never _____ behind people's backs.
9. I like your words, but your actions _____ the opposite.
10. Never _____ a book by its cover.
11. If you want to understand a person, you need to look for _____ in their behaviour.
12. We can't _____ our judgements on people's words.

Speaking

1. What qualities do you value in people?
2. Who are your best friends and what made them such?
3. Were there situations in your life when you didn't see the true character of a person and was disappointed later?

