

The best advice

Take turns to give each person some advice.
Use zero, first and second conditionals.

Kim
I want to leave my job and set up my own business, but I'm a bit scared. It's such a risk.

Sarah
I'm terrified of flying. But my daughter lives in Australia and my first grandson has just been born. I can't wait to meet him.

Miguel
I can't decide whether to go to university next year or take a gap year and go travelling.

Lucy
I feel I'm growing apart from my best friend since she met her boyfriend.

Richard
My neighbours are making my life difficult. They're nice people but they are really noisy, particularly late at night.

Emilie
I started a new job two months ago and I still haven't made any friends there.

Harry
I retire this year. I've been planning to move to the coast for years, but I'm worried about leaving my friends behind.

Isabella
I'm renting a lovely flat but I'm not saving any money and it's starting to concern me.
