VOCABULARY EXERCISE:
THE AUSTRALIAN OUTBACK

TASK 2: Match the underlined words from the text with their definitions. Drag the definitions in the orange boxes into the blue boxes next to the word. There are two definitions that you shouldn't use.

fertile

vast

sparse

expanse remoteness

unique

provide consultation

require

suitable

supply

occurrence

extremely big an event, esp. one that happens unexpectedly being the only existing one of its type or, more generally, unusual, or special in some way able to produce a large number of something (e.g. fruit, vegetables, …) because it's a good place to grow stg.

extremely small in growth acceptable or right for someone or something a large, open area of land, water, or sky to try to do something, especially something difficult small in numbers or amount, often spread over a large area:

to give someone something that they need an amount of something that is available for use (e.g. water, food, …)

a meeting to discuss something or to get advice being far away in distance, far away from any town or city to need something or make something necessary