

Reading Comprehension

Read the story below.

Rules at home and school are important. Rules keep people safe and help them to be good citizens. Rules in the community are called laws. Laws are created by our government. Our government writes laws to keep order and to keep citizens safe.

Fill in the circle next to the correct answer.

1. Why are rules important?

- (A) Rules are hard to follow. (C) Rules are only in schools.
(B) Rules keep people safe. (D) Rules cause people to fall.

2. Who creates laws that we must follow?

- (A) high school teachers (C) the government
(B) the police department (D) the fire department

3. Which one is not a reason laws are important?

- (A) Laws keep order.
(B) Laws keep citizens safe.
(C) Laws help people to be good citizens.
(D) Laws are only for adults.

Write your answer on the line.

4. What is a law that you follow?
