Name: _____

Should vs. Could

When do we use "could" and "should"?

Could = It is a modal verb used to express possibility as to make suggestions and requests.

Should = It is a modal verb used to give advice. When we tell other people what we think could help them.

Should gives stronger advice than could.

1. You _____ buy a motorcycle instead of a car because that is the most affordable form of transportation for your budget.
2. Mike purchased the wrong airline ticket. He _____ call the airline immediately.
3. We _____ meet at the park or at a coffee shop.
4. You _____ improve your English so you can pass the US Citizenship test.
5. I _____ take my English class online or I _____ take it in person.
6. You _____ take the red line train to DC.
7. US citizenship applicants _____ study US History to prepare for the US Citizenship test.
8. Students _____ use their cell phones to join the virtual class.

LIVEWORKSHEETS