

Look and choose how useful the actions are

1. You see a car accident! You take out your phone, take a video and send it to your friend.
2. You see a car accident, call the emergency service and say: "Help! There is a car on fire! It's terrible! Help!" Then you hang up and go home.
3. You see a car accident. First, you look at the street name and house number. Then you call the emergency service and tell them about the accident.

Why did WITCH and Mr. Pond stop?

- ☐ They saw an accident.
- ☐ It was raining too hard.

Why did Mr. Pond ask WITCH to stay in the car?

- ☐ It was too dangerous for WITCH.
- ☐ He wanted WITCH to hold his phone.

Why did the operator ask WITCH for a house number?

- ☐ She wanted to know his address.
- ☐ She was going to send an ambulance and a fire engine there.

Why did Mr. Pond say "Quick! We must get you out"?

- ☐ He saw the Thief.
- ☐ It's dangerous to stay in the car after the accident.

Why did the Thief help Mr. Pond?

- ☐ He wanted to take the map.
- ☐ Mr. Pond couldn't do it alone.

Don't panic

Read and type the words

ambulance accident firefighters emergency police address

It's very important to know what to do when there's an _____. First, try not to panic. For example, you see a car _____ and someone is hurt. If you've got a phone, you can call the _____. If you see lots of smoke coming from someone's window, call the _____. They will send a fire engine. If someone stole your money or your bicycle, you can call the _____. Don't forget to say the _____ when the operator asks you where you are.

suddenly there was this

Can I come with you?

I'm too tired

No way!

- What's that noise? Can you hear that?
- Someone is in the house!
- I'm going to check the living room.
- _____?
- _____! It can be dangerous. If I scream, call 999.
- OK.

5 minutes later

- What was it? Are you OK?
- I was going to the parent's bedroom and _____ bat! It was crazy! It was flying around the living room. I opened the big window and let it out.
- Cool! Let's go outside and look at the bats.
- _____. Let's just go to bed.