

John _____ (always/travel) a lot. In fact, when he was only two years old when he first flew to the US. His mother is Italian and his father is American. John was born in France, but his parents _____ (have/meet) in Cologne, Germany after they _____ (have/be/live) there for five years. They met one day while John's father was reading a book in the library and his mother sat down beside him.

John travels a lot because his parents also travel a lot. As a matter of fact, John is visiting his parents in France at the moment. He lives in New York now, but _____ (have/be/visit) his parents for the past few weeks. He really enjoys living in New York, but he also loves coming to visit his parents at least once a year.

This year he _____ (have/fly) over 50,000 miles for his job. He _____ (have/ be/work) for Jackson & Co. for almost two years now. He's pretty sure that _____ (be/work) for them next year as well. His job requires a lot of travel. In fact, by the end of this year, he _____ (have/ travel) over 120,000 miles! His next journey _____ (be) to Australia. He really doesn't like going to Australia because it is so far. This time he _____ (be/go) fly from Paris after a meeting with the company's French partner. He _____ (have/be/sit) for over 18 hours by the time he arrives!

John was talking with his parents earlier this evening when his girlfriend from New York telephoned to let him know that Jackson & Co. _____ (have/ decide) to merge with a company in Australia. The two companies _____ (have/be/negotiate) for the past month, so it really wasn't much of a surprise. Of course, this means that John _____ (have/ to catch) the next plane back to New York. He _____ (be/ meet) with his boss at this time tomorrow.
