

1 Complete the text with the correct form of the verbs in brackets. Use the Present Simple, Present Continuous, Past Simple or Past Continuous.

It's a sunny day, and you <sup>1</sup> ..... (walk) in the park when you <sup>2</sup> ..... (hear) noises coming from behind the trees. Suddenly, you <sup>3</sup> ..... (see) a strange creature. Are you in danger? Should you run away? No, someone <sup>4</sup> ..... (film) you for the television programme Just for Laughs: Gags! It's a hidden-camera show that <sup>5</sup> ..... (begin) in 2000 in Quebec, Canada. It started off using a hidden camera to film actors while they <sup>6</sup> ..... (play) a prank to surprise and sometimes shock people. At the end of the prank, the people were told about the joke, and most of the people <sup>7</sup> ..... (laugh) when they found out it was just a joke.

People <sup>8</sup> ..... (not talk) on Just for Laughs: Gags! There's only music and laughter, so audiences around the world easily <sup>9</sup> ..... (understand) the jokes.

2 Complete the mini-dialogues with the correct affirmative or negative form of the verbs in brackets. Use the Present Perfect Simple or Past Perfect Simple.

1 A: Do you like traditional Polish food?

B: I don't know. I ..... never ..... (taste) it.

2 A: They're such a nice couple. How long ..... they ..... (be) together?

B: They met a year ago and ..... (date) since then.

3 A: Was it your first time flying in a helicopter?

B: Yes, until yesterday, I ..... never ..... (fly) in a helicopter before.

4 A: Is dinner ready?

B: No, I ..... (prepare) it yet.

5 A: Why did she leave the party so suddenly?

B: Because she ..... (promise) her parents to return the car by 10.00.

3 Complete the dialogue using the correct form of the verbs in brackets. Use the Future Simple, be going to, Future Perfect Simple or Future Continuous. There may be more than one correct answer.

A: Hi, Kate. I'm just calling to say goodbye.

B: Where are you going?

A: At this time tomorrow, I <sup>1</sup> ..... (fly) to Tuscany. My parents gave me a six-day cookery course holiday as a birthday gift.

B: That's great! I know you love cooking, but <sup>2</sup> ..... you ..... (cook) the entire time?

A: No, there <sup>3</sup> ..... (be) lots of activities for all the participants to do there, including horse riding, because the cookery school is on a farm. In the mornings, we <sup>4</sup> ..... (study) with a local chef, and the rest of the time we <sup>5</sup> ..... (explore) the area on horseback with a guide.

B: It sounds like you <sup>6</sup> ..... (not have) any time to relax.

A: There's also a swimming pool and a gym which I <sup>7</sup> ..... (use).

B: How many people are on the course?

A: Five other people <sup>8</sup> ..... (take) the course with me, but I'm the only person from Britain. The others are American and Australian. I'm really excited!

B: Good luck! Hopefully, you <sup>9</sup> ..... (learn) a lot about Italian food by the time you come back.

A: I hope so. I <sup>10</sup> ..... (invite) you for a meal. It's a promise.