Choose the correct conditional form for each sentence.

1. (Is it, Will it, Would it) be all right if I used your mobile phone?
2. If plants don't have enough water, they (die, will die, would die).
3. George (comes, will come, would come) if you promise not to talk about school all the time.
4. I (don't, won't, wouldn't) trust people if I were you.
5. If he could speak good English, he (finds, will find, would find) well-paid job in London.
6. You (manage, will manage, would manage) it if you didn't panic.
7. She (takes, will take, would take) a taxi if it rains.
8. I (don't, won't, wouldn't) tell you anything if you can't keep a secret.
9. If I go to bed after midnight, I (am always, will always be, would always) be tired in the morning.
10. I (like, will like, would like) to visit the museums if I am in a new city.

LIVEWORKSHEETS