

friends

Have you ... thought about friendship and the type of friends that you have now or had in the past? over a thousand years, friendship has a topic of discussion. Some believe friends stand up you whatever may happen. think friends are just people youout. When we thought about our mates in childhood, wejudge or were dependentthem as you may now.

