

He/she/it: We do not write the final “-s”, “-es” or “-ies” in the verb because “doesn’t” already has the “s”.

4. Write “don’t” or “doesn’t”:

I don't take holidays on Easter.

I _____ use the scissors.

You _____ want that cake.

Joane _____ cook.

He _____ leave the hotel at night.

You and Ibai _____ sing well.

She _____ need her help.

Unai _____ move very fast.

It _____ become a witch.

The lion _____ swim.

We _____ begin the class.

Eneko and Peru _____ put the sticker.

You _____ help your mum.

I _____ turn the chair.

They _____ live in Barcelona.

Me and Zelai _____ show their picture.

5. Complete the sentences in affirmative or negative. Use “-s”, “-es” or “-ies” only when it is necessary and choose between “don’t” and “doesn’t”.

I use my computer every day, but I don't use my notebook every day.

You like__ pizza for lunch, but you _____ like__ pizza for breakfast.

Maitane close__ the door, but she _____ close__ the window.

The giraffe reach__ the small tree, but it _____ reach__ the big tree.

Maddi and I do__ yoga, but we _____ do__ karate.

You and your friends laugh__ in the circus, but you _____ laugh__ in the exam.

Jon and Xabier get__ the diploma, but they _____ get__ the medal.

- QUESTION

We use do and does to make questions with the present simple:

Do I play?
Do you play?
Does he (Mikel) play?
Does she (Nerea) play?
Does it (Beltzi) play?
Do we play?
Do you play?
Do they play?

He/she/it: We do not write the final "s" in the verb because "Does" already has the "s".

6. Write "Do" or "Does":

Do I look happy?

_____ you spend a lot of money?

_____ they read in class?

_____ I use the machine?

_____ we learn a lot?

_____ Ziortza understand it?

_____ he wake up at 8am?

_____ the phone ring?

_____ you listen to music?

_____ Lier bring his ball?

_____ she brush her teeth?

_____ you believe in dragons?