

- 1. Collywobbles
- 2. Cotard's Syndrome
- 3. Didaskaleinophobia
- 4. Exploding Head Syndrome
- 5. Hippopotomonstrosesquipedaliophobia
- 6. Jumping Frenchmen of Maine
- 7. Phronemophobia
- 8. Pogonophobia
- 9. Slapped-Face Disease
- 10. Stendhal Syndrome
- 11. Tarantism
- 12. Testophobia
- 13. Witzelsucht
- 14. Xenoglossophobia
- 15. Xyrophobia

a) A mental illness in which someone thinks s/he is a walking corpse, does not exist, is putrefying or has lost his/her blood or internal organs.
b) Fear of razors.
c) Rapid heartbeat and possible heart attack as a result of looking at beautiful art.
d) Fear of thoughts or thinking.
e) Fear of taking tests.
f) A sufferer of this disease displays highly exaggerated movements and tends to leap out wildly.
g) Fear of foreign languages.
h) Red stripes on the face that itch like crazy.
i) Rare disease that causes the victim to make bad puns and jokes at inappropriate moments.
j) A bellyache or butterflies in the stomach.
k) Fear of beards.
l) An uncontrollable urge to dance.
m) Fear of long words.
n) People with this problem hear all kinds of loud noises, which are only in their heads.
Such incidents are thought to be brought on by anxiety or extreme fatigue.
o) Fear of going to school.