

Present Continuous - Future Arrangements

FORM

To be + verb + ing

USE

Something that has been arranged / planned with other people

EXAMPLE

I'm playing tennis with Tom tomorrow.

A. Complete the dialogue using the Present Continuous

	SATURDAY	SUNDAY
10.00	Meet cousin at the airport	Take cousin to Aquarium
13.00	Drive around town	Lunch at Hard Rock Café
15.00	Introduce cousin to friends	Video games at Derek's house
16.00	Tennis	Dinner at the local pub
20.00	Dinner party at home	Cinema at the Shopping Centre

- So, _____ your cousin _____ (arrive) this Saturday?
- That's right. We _____ (meet) him at the airport at 10 o' clock. Then we _____ (take) a drive around town so that he can see the sights.
- _____ he _____ (stay) at your place?
- Yes, he is. So in the afternoon, I _____ (introduce) him to my friends and then we _____ (play) tennis together.
- That's a good idea. And what _____ you _____ (do) in the evening?
- We _____ (have) a dinner party with the whole family. On Sunday morning, we _____ (take) him to Aquarium and then we _____ (have) lunch at the Hard Rock Café. After that, he _____ (come) to Derek's house with me to play video games.
- That sounds good. _____ he _____ (leave) on Sunday night?
- No, he _____ (not leave) until next week. In fact, we _____ (have) dinner at the local pub and then _____ (go) to the movies in the evening. Do you want to come with us?
- I can't. I _____ (study) with Fiona. We have a test on Monday. And _____ you _____ (visit) them in Holland next year?
- Yes. It's all arranged. I _____ (spend) next summer at their house in Amsterdam!