

Mr. and Mrs. Thomson _____ (not cook) every evening, but tonight they 1 _____ (prepare) a special dinner.

Their son Jack usually 2 _____ (read) a book before dinner, but today he 3 _____ (work) on a school project.

Jack 4 _____ (sometimes, play) with Lucy. Now, he 5 _____ (study) for the test. He isn't happy about that!

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson _____ (not, cook) every evening, but tonight they _____ (prepare) spaghetti and tomato sauce.

Their daughter Emily usually _____ (read) a book before dinner, but today she _____ (draw) a picture in her room.

Emily _____ (not usually sleep) at 9 p.m. It's 9 p.m. today and she _____ (sleep). She is tired!

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson _____ (not play cards) every evening, but tonight they _____ (play) a game of poker.

Their daughter Mia usually _____ (listen) to music before dinner, but today she _____ (listen) a new CD.

Mia _____ (not play) piano often. At the moment, she _____ (not play) very well. She isn't happy about that!

Mr. and Mrs. Davis _____ (not go out) to eat every evening, but tonight they _____ (have dinner) at a restaurant.

Their daughter Lily usually _____ (read) a book before bedtime, but tonight she _____ (chat) with her best friend on the phone.

Emma _____ (not tidy) her room very often. At the moment, she _____ (vacuum) her room.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson)..... (not cook) every evening, but tonight they _____ (prepare) a special roast chicken dinner.

Their daughter Emily usually _____ (read) books before dinner, but today she _____ (learn) English.

Emily _____ (not practice) the piano with Ethan very often. At the moment, she _____ (not play) very well. She isn't happy about that!

