

24 Comparison: adjectives and adverbs

I can use comparative and superlative adjectives and adverbs.

Comparative and superlative adjectives

We use the comparative adjective with than to compare two people or things.

Pete is stronger than Tim.

We can use the comparative to compare two groups.
Doctors are richer than nurses.
Paris is more beautiful than Manchester.

With the superlative, we use the before the adjective.
I've got three brothers. Mike is the oldest.
Yesterday was the hottest day of the year.
'The Simpsons' is the most enjoyable programme on TV.

After the adjective, we use in before places or nouns for a group of people (e.g. team, family).

We use the superlative adjective with the when we compare three or more things.

But Max is the strongest.

It's the tallest building in my town.
Amy is the most intelligent person in the class.

We use of before other nouns.
It was the funniest film of the year.

We can also use superlatives with the phrase I've ever ...
This is the most interesting book I've ever read.
See Reference page 175 for the spelling rules.
