Listen to the story and fill in the gaps with the right verbs.

```
in Australia ... when I about This
twenty-five. I a few days at a hotel in Alice Springs and to Ayers Rock and ... well, anyway, one day, I out for a walk ... in the outback. It a lovely day so I and
   ... and then I where I ... I was a bit stupid, really... because to go further ... I guess I l'd find the way back. Erm ... anyway, after that I some dogs. First I them barking, and then a group – maybe five or six dogs, wild dogs, coming towards me. I really frightened, but I some advice I, er ..., I in my guidebook: Don't move, and don't look at the dogs. So I _____, like a statue ... I didn't move ... and I at a tree, not at the dogs, and my eyes. The dogs all around me, jumping and barking ... I they were going to bite me. Then one dog bite my arm, just a little, but still I end, after about twenty minutes, the dogs away. I there for a few more minutes and then luckily my way back to the hotel. It 🖠 the most frightening experience I'
```