

Describe that the presence of light in space causes objects to be able to be seen.

1-Why do we need light to see things in a room?

2-What happens when a room has no light?

3-Can you give an example of when it's hard to see things because there's not enough light?
