Life of a college student

Lucy studies art in a college near her house. Yesterday she has a really busy day and today she is going to tell us about how is like to be a college student.

Lucy: well, yesterday was terrible. First of all, I went to the bookstore to buy a dictionary for my French classes. Then I bought a folder for my Literature's class. At 3:00 p.m. I attended to an art fair in the local theater, I needed to do a summary about that fair. Next, I went to my drama classes and I had to take a compass and a recorder with me because my teacher evaluated our improvisation skills. Fortunately, I got a good grade.

Interviewer: wow, what do you expect to do now?

Lucy: Today I just want to go home and watch some cartoons or news. It's Saturday so I'm going to relax.
