Kitesurfing in California

Last week, I signed up for a day of kitesurfing with California Adventures. Kitesurfing is like surfing, but you catch the wind with a large kite. I often watched people kitesurfing on the ocean, and they could travel really fast! I was excited to try it myself.

At 10 a.m., I went to Gold Beach. There, I met my teacher, Miguel. There were three other people in my class. Having a small class was great, because Miguel could spend a lot of time with each of us. He explained things very clearly, and showed us how to stand on our boards and how to hold our kites.

California Adventures wanted everyone to stay safe. We were all strong swimmers, but we had to wear safety equipment. Miguel also had a helper. She watched us closely and helped us when we fell.

There was one problem. Kitesurfing is really hard! You can't become good at it in just one day. I thought I could do fun jumps, but we spent most of the time on the beach. Finally, we went in the water, and I was happy to just stand up on the board! Don't expect to be a professional kitesurfer after one lesson! To fix this problem, I suggest that California Adventures tell people they need to take three or four lessons.

However, I had a great day. There was some wind, and it wasn't too hot. I'm feeling very tired today, so I am happy I didn't sign up for the three-hour class!

I think California Adventures is a good company. Their prices were very good. I paid $90 for my lesson. Also, their teachers know a lot about kitesurfing, and they are very, very friendly. I am going to go back for another lesson!
