

VOCABULARY EXTRA PRACTICE -Unit 2

1 Choose the correct answer.

1. In some countries, people eat with their hands, but it's considered disapproving / disorganised / unacceptable in other countries.

2. We aren't used to eating insects, so we felt disgust / pleasure / relief when we were served some in Thailand.

3. In Japan, it's rude to leave food on your plate, so we did our best to get away with / get over / get through our huge helpings.

4. In western countries, businesspeople usually lean forward / shake hands / breathe a sigh of relief when they meet for the first time.

5. After we finished the meal, we thanked Jane for her generous etiquette / hospitality / manners.

THANK YOU FOR BEING AN AWESOME
Host

6. When I go shopping, I find it hard to choose things because I'm so illogical / impolite / indecisive.

7. As Marie's wedding day approached / delayed / exchanged, she became more nervous and excited.

