too + adjective, (not +) adjective + enough

3 Use the example sentences to circle the correct options in the rule.

His vegetable soup is always too spicy.

This pizza is not hot enough.

RULE:

- We use too + adjective to say that something is <sup>1</sup>more / less than we like or want.
- We use not + adjective + enough to say that something is <sup>2</sup>more / less than we like or want.

4 Complete the sentences.

- 0 The test is too easy. It's not hard enough.
- 1 The film isn't exciting enough. It's   .
- 2 The T-shirt is too expensive. It's   .
- 3 It's not warm enough today. It's   .
- 4 Your bike's too small for me. It's   .
- 5 His car's not fast enough. It's   .

5 Complete with not enough or too.

My dad always says there's <sup>1</sup> much rain in the UK in the summer, and that it's <sup>2</sup> hot   . He's right. And I feel that it's <sup>3</sup> boring to spend holidays here. So I'm happy that we usually go to the south of Italy for our holidays. There are kilometres of beaches, and so there are never <sup>4</sup> many tourists. I love the food there, that's why I often eat <sup>5</sup> much.
