

Imagine (p .32)

Match the words to their meanings.

Write a number in each box.

|                             |                                                             |
|-----------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. ability                  | being sure, having strong belief or full assurance          |
| 2. actually                 | a person who judges, evaluates or analyzes                  |
| 3. behavior                 | the way people act                                          |
| 4. combination              | to see, learn of, find, or find out                         |
| 5. competitor               | a person who is in a contest with the opposed side          |
| 6. confident                | the state or feeling of facing a failure                    |
| 7. critic                   | (n) containing nothing (v) to discharge content             |
| 8. to criticize             | to inspire with spirit, or confidence                       |
| 9. disappointment           | in agreement with or on the authority of                    |
| 10. to discover             | to rely on someone or something, to place trust             |
| 11. empty                   | as an existing fact; really.                                |
| 12. to encourage            | be careful                                                  |
| 13. according to            | is expected to be or do something                           |
| 14. be supposed to          | to judge or discuss the faults, to make judgements          |
| 15. to depend on            | It's not important                                          |
| 16. no matter (what/ where) | power to do or act physically, mentally, etc.               |
| 17. once in a while         | to reveal or be revealed clearly                            |
| 18. to show up              | something formed by uniting                                 |
| 19. to take advantage of    | a talk or rumor, especially about private affairs of others |
| 20. text message            | excessively affected by external things or influences       |
| 21. to watch out            | to put to good use or to profit selfishly by ...            |
| 22. gossip                  | occasionally, not very often                                |
| 23. healthy                 | to identify from knowledge of appearance or else            |
| 24. however                 | possessing or enjoying good physical condition              |
| 25. model                   | an electronic communication sent by ...                     |
| 26. to realize              | concerned mainly with one's own interests, egotistic        |
| 27. to recognize            | in whatever way, manner, or state, in spite of that         |
| 28. reputation              | a standard or example or a small version of something       |
| 29. secret                  | understand clearly, to bring vividly to the mind            |
| 30. self- centered          | to assist in performance/ to serve as a foundation for      |
| 31. sensitive               | done without the knowledge of others                        |
| 32. to support              | the name in which a person or thing is held publicly        |