

Student's name: _____

Teacher's name: T.Sopheaknith

Gender: _____

Topic: Healthy Diet and Cell

Class: _____ / Grade: 4 KYI

Science Quiz II

I. Unscramble the words below.

1. ine prot _____ Protein
 2. Esed _____
 3. liarel gc _____
 4. odof _____
 5. arfmhul _____

1. nm estraul yc lce _____
 2. gae _____
 3. orpdcut Lble a _____
 4. Clle _____
 5. eathlhy _____

II. Choose words to complete.

requirement	perform	information	gender
quality	vary	plan a diet
nutrients	ingredients	additives
amounts	product labels	serving size

• How does diet _____ from person to person?

Food provides us with the (1) _____ that our body needs. Different people have to eat different (2) _____ and types of food. The amount of each type of nutrient a person needs is known as nutritional (3) _____. Each of us has a different nutritional requirement. This changes with our age, (4) _____, body weight and the activities we _____. (5) We _____ (6) a diet according to our nutritional requirement. We can read _____ to find out _____ (7) about the food product including _____ (8), nutrition facts, use by date, _____ (9) list and precautionary measures. Food _____ (10) are add to food to maintain its _____ (10) and improve it taste and appearance.

III. Read carefully and match.

a) A Powerful microscope

b) Non-Living thing

c) Living things

- are made up of cell

d) There are many different cell

e) Unicellular organisms

f) Yeast

g) Bacteria

h) Paramecium

i) Multicellular

j) Cell

- Such a cheek cell red blood cells brain cell kidney cell.

- It's the smallest unit of life.

- are not make up of cell

- is a micro -organisms that can be found in soil and the plants.

- organisms that make up of more than one cell.

- We used to help us observe cell and to learn more about cell because the cell are very small and size.

- Some living thing that make up of only one cell for example bacterial yeast paramecium

- are found everywhere in air ,water and on land.

- is a unicellular organism found in ponds.