

Grandparents' Farm

Susan is eight years old and she lives with her parents and two brothers in London.

She goes to "London's primary school" and she plays the piano.

At the weekend she goes with her family to her grandparents' house. They live in a large farmhouse in the countryside. There is also a barn for the horses.

Susan likes helping her Grandma to feed the ducks, the rabbits, the goats and the little pigs. She also likes picking apples and flowers, collecting the eggs. She loves also riding Blacky, her favourite horse.

Life in the farm is hard and very busy! Susan likes the farm very much! She often says that she wants to be a farmer in the future!
