

Fill the gaps with the missing words

are living things that make their own food.

consumers are herbivores that eat producers.

consumers are carnivores and omnivores that eat primary consumers.

are living things that eat the remains of other living things.

remains

food

carnivores

herbivores

