Announcement – John David

F During John's time in the marketing department, he has taken on additional responsibility and worked extra hours to meet deadline. We anticipate that as a head of the marketing department, John's input and work aggression will be multifold. His work duties now include creating and implementing marketing plans for the Amadeus project that has been entrusted to the company. He will be leading the marketing team through this five-year project and will also be working on various other concurrent projects.
