A CITY OF SUPERLATIVES

The city I live in is over 400 years old. Over a century ago, it had the country's first banks, streetlights, and telephones. Today you will find neighborhoods with the oldest buildings in the city, and some of the newest, modern buildings, too.

The most modern part of the city is downtown. Tall, modern skyscrapers crowd the area. The tallest building is a beautiful hotel. It has 90 floors, and there's a fabulous swimming pool at the top, with spectacular views of the city. One of the museums looks like something from the future, and the science museum has an amazing design.

It's a big city, but it's easy to get around by bus, subway, and train. There's even a new, highspeed train to the airport, which is about 30 kilometers away. It only takes eight minutes, but by car it can take over an hour.

People come from all over the world to visit my city. Most tourists come in the summer – the hottest time of year. I think the summer is too hot. The best time of year here is the fall, when it's a little cooler.
