

Choose a correct variant

1. Olga is lucky to buy/to have bought this dress.
2. He seems to play/to be playing tennis now.
3. Speak louder if you want to hear/to be heard.
4. We were sorry to miss/to have missed our train.
5. Sasha went out into the street to find/to have found himself alone.
6. The doctor prescribed medicine to take/to be taken every 2 hours.
7. My son was glad to have been given/to give this book.
8. It is a pleasure to be/to have been your friend all these years.
9. She doesn't want to speak/to have spoken about it.
10. The book is to publish/to be published very soon.
11. Take your umbrella. It seems to rain/to be raining.
12. I am sorry not to have met/not to meet you before.