

Choose a correct answer

1. You may like/may have liked this delicious cake.
2. She hasn't come home yet. She must still work/must be still working.
3. It may rain/may be rain. You'd better take a coat.
4. Pavel might have missed/might miss the train.
5. The teacher can't have forgotten/can't be forgotten to correct our mistakes.
6. That old building must be/must been your school.
7. Nastya may be still waiting/may still have waited for you in the entrance hall.
8. My uncle may come/may have come tomorrow.
9. He can't be building/can't build a new house now.
10. I must have been sitting/must be sitting there for an hour before I saw him.
11. He can't be/can't have been in the park now. It is too late!
12. My brother may come/may be coming today.