LISTENING

Part 1 L Page 94

- Look at the photos. What are the people doing? How much time each day do you spend: a) studying or working, b) travelling, and c) relaxing?
- Look at question 1 in the exam task. Answer these questions.
 - How many speakers will you hear? Are they female or male? What is the situation?
 - Part 1 questions may focus, for instance, on opinion, purpose or place. What is the focus of Where is he?
- Read the recording script for question 1. Which is the correct answer (A, B or C)? Why? Why are the other two wrong?

I'm standing here in Church Avenue with about thirty other media people, but by the look of the place there isn't anybody in. Nobody's quite sure if he'll be back later this afternoon – or whether he's spending the weekend away, perhaps at a luxury hotel in the city centre. What does seem clear, though, is that he's unlikely to play in Sunday's big match – otherwise these TV crews would be waiting at the gates of the club's training ground to film him, not here.

- 1.02 Work in pairs. For each of questions 2–8, ask and answer the questions in Exercise 2. Then listen and do the exam task.

Quick steps to Listening Part 1

- Don't choose an answer until you've heard the whole extract.
- You can always change your mind about an answer while you're listening or when you listen again.

Exam task

You will hear people talking in eight different situations. For questions 1–8, choose the best answer (A, B or C).

- You hear a reporter talking on the radio. Where is he?
 - outside a training ground
 - outside an expensive hotel
 - outside somebody's house
- You hear a woman talking about travelling to work every day. How does she feel about the daily train journey?
 - It is often quite tiring.
 - It is a good opportunity to talk to people.
 - It is a relaxing way to begin the day.
- You overhear a woman talking on the phone. Why is she calling?
 - to apologise for a mistake
 - to refuse to do something
 - to deny she did something
- You hear a man talking about reading books. Why does he enjoy reading at home?
 - It helps him pass the time.
 - It enables him to spend time alone.
 - It makes a change from his job.
- You overhear a conversation in a holiday resort. Who is the woman?
 - a waitress
 - a tourist
 - a café owner
- You hear a man talking about staying healthy. What is he doing to improve his fitness?
 - eating less food
 - going to the gym
 - walking to work
- You hear a woman talking about her home. Where does she live?
 - in a city-centre flat
 - in a house in the suburbs
 - in a country cottage
- You overhear two people talking about finding something. How does the woman feel?
 - grateful
 - relieved
 - concerned

- Have you chosen an answer for every question? Even if you're not sure, you could be right.

1 GRAMMAR

Review of present tenses Page 103

- 1 Match extracts a–g from the recording in Listening with rules 1–7.

- a I'm standing here in Church Avenue.
b I live a long way out in the suburbs.
c Whenever I can, I go into the study.
d The traffic into town is getting worse all the time.
e Somebody is always pushing.
f A south-facing room gets lots of sunshine.
g This month I'm working particularly hard.

We use the present simple to talk about:

- 1 a routine or habit
- 2 a permanent situation
- 3 something which is always true

We use the present continuous to talk about:

- 4 something happening right now
- 5 a temporary situation
- 6 a situation that is changing or developing
- 7 something irritating or surprising, using always

Note: verbs which describe states, e.g. think, own, have, understand, are normally used in simple tenses, but some can be continuous when they describe something we do, e.g. I'm thinking of buying a bike.

See Grammar reference page 103: stative verbs.

- 2  Correct the mistakes in these sentences written by exam candidates.

- 1 I suppose that you are understanding my situation.
- 2 This evening, people are playing music and have fun.
- 3 I know that you are liking your job, but in my opinion you are working too hard.
- 4 I wait for your answer to my letter.
