

1. When you defend someone or support their cause, you _____ them.
 - a) fall out with
 - b) stand up for
 - c) settle down
 - d) pick on

2. If you are surprised or shocked by something, you are said to be _____.
 - a) look down on
 - b) take aback
 - c) bring up
 - d) put down

3. When someone passes away, it means they have _____.
 - a) grown up
 - b) fallen for
 - c) picked on
 - d) died

4. To make peace after a disagreement is to _____.
 - a) look up to
 - b) make up for
 - c) get on with
 - d) ask after

5. If you constantly criticize someone, you are said to _____ them.
 - a) fall for
 - b) bring up
 - c) put down
 - d) set down

6. When you are curious about someone's wealth and ask about them, you _____ them.
 - a) take aback
 - b) ask after
 - c) stand up for
 - d) settle down

7. When two people have a serious disagreement and are no longer friends, they have _____.

- a) fallen for
- b) fallen out with
- c) looked up to
- d) grown up

8. If you have a good relationship and harmony with someone, you _____ them well.

- a) get on with
- b) look up to
- c) settle down
- d) put down

9. When you admire and respect someone, you _____ them.

- a) set down
- b) fall out with
- c) look up to
- d) pick on

10. If you decide to live a stable and quiet life, you choose to _____.

- a) fall out with
- b) grow up
- c) settle down
- d) stand up for

11. If someone is quick to anger or easily irritated, they are _____.

- a) kind
- b) hot-tempered
- c) pleased
- d) assist

12. If someone is generally agreeable and easy to get along with, they are considered _____.

- a) bad-tempered
- b) likeable
- c) fault
- d) nervous

13. The state of being content and satisfied with someone else's success is to be _____.

- a) pleased
- b) famous

- c) support
- d) assist

14. When someone takes responsibility for a mistake or wrongdoing, they are said to be _____.

- a) blame for
- b) fault
- c) connection
- d) crowd

15. If someone is widely recognized and notorious for negative reasons, they are _____.

- a) sensitive
- b) bad-tempered
- c) infamous
- d) sympathetic

16. When someone understands others' feelings, they are described as _____.

- a) sympathetic
- b) open-minded
- c) kind
- d) nervous