

Brick
by
Brick

The class listens to CDs and watches movies.	Monica borrows the book and returns it.	Zach works on his report while he watches TV.
The teacher asks questions while the students answer them.	Recess ends and everyone walks down the halls.	Our teacher listens to us and wants us to ask questions.
He kicks the ball and scores a point.	The cafeteria serves us pizza on special days.	The teacher assigns us homework and wishes us a happy weekend.
Macy ignores him and finishes her test.	Mr. Gray drops the basketball and it bounces.	Colleen plays the piano and dances.

Brick
by
Brick

A vertical column of seven rectangular boxes, each outlined with a dashed line, intended for drawing or writing.

She drew a picture.	We maked a birdhouse.	I weared those pants yesterday.
He dranked all his milk.	They rided on the train.	Their team winned the game.
He builded a new house.	She gived me a birthday present.	We slided down the hill.
We buyed some fruit.	I hurted my hand.	He telled me a secret.