

Listening

1. You will hear four people talking about food. Match statements A–G with speakers 1–4. There are three extra letters.

Speaker 1

Speaker 2

Speaker 3

Speaker 4

2 You will hear six short extracts about holidays. For questions 1–6, choose the correct answer, A, B or C.

1 The entertainment finished

- A about an hour after the ferry had set off.
- B before England was out of sight.
- C about an hour before they set off in the car.

2 The man will have to pay extra because

- A one of his bags is too heavy.
- B all his luggage together weighs too much.
- C he has too many bags.

3 Choose the correct statement.

- A Beth has been on a school trip and is telling her dad what she did.
- B Beth is on holiday and is telling her dad about what has happened so far.
- C Beth is on a school trip and is explaining to her dad that he might have to collect her.

4 The speaker is

- A recommending a tent to some customers.
- B talking about a tent he has used in the Himalayas.
- C talking about a tent that he is going to buy.

5 From St Agnes

A you can easily get to the Isles of Scilly.

B you can admire the Atlantic Ocean.

C you can take a boat trip to Canada

6 The man who has been on holiday

A spent the whole time skiing.

B visited two different countries.

C did three different activities.

Reading

3 Read the texts. For questions 1-4, choose the correct answer, A, B, C or D.

TRAVELLERS' TALES

1 John

We often travel by plane but we don't use budget airlines, even though they are cheaper and often fly to the places we want to go. I'd rather pay more for a bit more comfort. Last Christmas, we wanted to spend the holidays with family and friends and we had a change of flight in Frankfurt, Germany. The time between flights was forty-five minutes and we soon realised that we weren't going to make it. The airline was good to us and the other passengers and gave us food and a comfortable hotel to sleep in. We got a flight the next morning but, unfortunately, it meant that we missed a big family party. I thought I'd been clever and found a quick way to get to Canada but I was very wrong. Now I know that I need to leave at least two hours between flights if I want to be safe. That's much better than missing a flight or arriving without your luggage.

2 Greta

We decided to travel across Europe by train. Train travel always looks so romantic in films. I imagined leisurely meals in the dining car, meeting exotic people, followed by a comfortable night's sleep. Things started to go wrong before we had even left. The security and check-in for the train from London was just like at an airport except that the queues were longer. Then, when we got to Brussels, we found that our night train was three hours late and there was nowhere to leave our bags. After a very long and not very good meal at the station, it was finally time to get on the night train. It was OK but the compartment was too hot and when we opened the window, it was too noisy to sleep. The beds were hard and there was no dining car so everyone went straight to their own compartments and didn't socialise at all. It wasn't quite as I had imagined it!

3 Elias

We wanted to go to England but weren't sure how to travel. We live a long way from an airport and, anyway, none of us like flying. If we went by train, we would have to change three times. In the end, we went by coach. It left our home town at five o'clock in the afternoon, as planned, and arrived in London, exactly on time, twenty-two hours later. I wasn't expecting to sleep well and it wasn't as comfortable as a bed but it was better than I had imagined. The bus stopped every four hours for a rest and we all got out. Everyone was very friendly and chatted and the atmosphere was almost like a party. Then, at about eleven o'clock, it all went quiet as people tried to sleep. When I got out in London, half asleep but happy, I felt as if I was saying goodbye to old friends. I'm now planning on doing more travelling by coach.

1 John doesn't use budget airlines because

- A they don't fly where he wants to go.
- B the time between flights is always too short.
- C they are uncomfortable.
- D they often lose people's luggage.

2 John

- A blames the airline for missing his flight.
- B was happy that food and accommodation was provided by the airline.
- C is happy he has found a fast way to get to Canada.
- D only books direct flights since missing his flight.

3 When Greta travelled across Europe by train,

- A the experience didn't meet her expectations.
- B she was surprised that everyone had their own compartment.
- C everything was exactly how she imagined it.
- D she felt it was very romantic.

4 Elias

- A enjoyed his journey as he was travelling with old friends.
- B was unhappy about changing coaches three times.
- C slept extremely well on the coach.
- D enjoyed socialising with new people on his coach journey.