

Module 3: Expanding your vocabulary.

7 powerful words and expressions to use in an interview

1 I can, I will

Phrases like “I can contribute ...” and “I will offer my strengths in this way ...” show that you are positive and confident in the gifts and talents you bring to a company.

The word “will” implies conviction and ability

● Example:

Interviewer: Why are you a good fit for this job?

Answer: “I am a good fit for this job because I can produce results. In my last job, I sold the highest number of customer plans.”

3 Opportunity

“Opportunity” is a word that both describes chances you have been given in the past to develop your skills and shows possibility and gratitude

● Example:

Interviewer: What are you looking for in a new position?

Answer: “I see this job as an opportunity to increase my exposure to clients.”

2 I look forward to

As soon as you have been accepted an interview, you can respond with something like,

“I look forward to the chance to discuss what I can bring to your company.”

It is positive and hopeful language that shows you have confidence in your abilities.

● Example:

Interviewer: How do you respond to new project assignments?

Answer: “I look forward to the first project planning meeting with a new team.”

4 Experience

When possible, it is good to describe your duties and projects in terms of your job experience during an interview

● Example:

Interviewer: How have your previous jobs prepared you for this one?

Answer: “I have 10 years of experience in sales and marketing, most of it with one company....”

5 Skills

Pointing out some of your relevant skills can help an interviewer know you better

● Example:

Interviewer: Can you describe some of your soft skills?

Answer: “I think the most valuable skill I have is time-management.”
