

RELATIVE PRONOUNS AND ADJECTIVES

Fill in the gaps with the words from the dropdown lists.

That's the woman                      daughter is my classmate.

This is the dress                      I bought for my sister's wedding.

This is the family                      house is really nice.

Ireland is a country                      the leprecons live.

New Year is a holiday                      dreams come true.

Van Gogh was the artist                      painted "The Sunflowers".

My uncle bought a carpet                      was made in Turkey.

A woman                      baby was crying, was upset.

The flat                      Jill lives is very small.

I always can't find the key                      I come home.

The flowers,                      grow in the garden, are beautiful.

Take the teapot                      is on the table.

Mr. Jones,                      is a designer, lives here.

Tony,                      father is a teacher, is good at Maths.

This is the city                      we spend holidays.