GAP FILLING

Listen again and fill in the blanks with the missing words.

One. What is the woman's first memory?

Woman: The first thing I remember is when I was about five my father took me to the seaside. My brother stayed at home with my mother because he was too young. We couldn't go in the sea because it was too (1), but we spent hours playing on the sand.

Two. Which train will the woman catch?

Woman: What time's the next train to Manchester please?

Man: You've just (2)the 8.15. The next one's not until 10.15. There isn't one at 9.15.

Woman: But that's a two hour wait and I'll be late for my (3)at 10.30. But I suppose I haven't any choice - I'll go for a coffee while I'm waiting.

Three. What should the students take with them tomorrow?

Teacher: Now, about the school picnic - it'll be hot so leave your (4) behind but make sure you've got something to keep the sun off your head, and a drink in case you get thirsty ... oh, and something to (5) on - that's for a game we're going to play. And don't be late!

Four. What will they do at the weekend?

Woman: What shall we do at the weekend, Tony? The Browns are coming up with their children. I was wondering about a visit to the zoo, or a river trip ... or just going down to the sea again ...

Man: Let's do something (6) The weather should be good, so we could take a picnic to the (7)instead. The children will enjoy it and it'll be a nice change from the beach.

Woman: Right then, we'll do that.

Five. What does the woman need to buy?

Woman: Let me see, eggs - I've got lots of those, butter - I don't need that. I'll get some milk, bread, and I've nearly (8)the toothpaste ... oh, there's a new one in the cupboard. But I (9)need some apples. Now, where's my purse?

Six. How will the boy get to school?

Woman: Get up, Martin. It's (10)during the night. The school bus won't be able to go, so you'll have to walk.

Boy: Oh, I'll go by (11)

Woman: Don't be silly. The snow's far too deep for that.

Boy: Then I'll ski. That'll be (12)than walking and I can save the bus fare! But I'll have some breakfast first.

Seven. Which is Tanya's boyfriend?

Woman 1: Look - this is the band on the television now, Tanya's boyfriend is the (13)

Woman 2: She told me he played the guitar.

Woman 1: He does sometimes, but not tonight, and you know he (14)to be the keyboard player in that other band. He's so brilliant. Don't you think she's lucky?

Woman 2: Oh, I don't know. I think I prefer the (15)myself, actually.
