The Power of Music in Our Life Hi, my name is Eliza. I really like listening to music in my free time. Beside that, I also like singing some songs. Music is very important to me. By the way, do you agree that music is important in our life? I certainly think so. Music has certain role in completing our day. Here are some reasons why music is heard everywhere and anywhere.

Music is a way to express feelings. When we are happy, the kind of music we'd listen to would be songs which lyrics talk about happiness. When we're sad, we apparently would tend to go for music that is melancholic in nature because this kind of music allows us to immerse ourselves in the sadness.

Song can help to memorize the last experiences. A favourite song is a powerful documentary People with Alzheimer whose brain are impaired would remember details about songs they were familiar with.

For example, an elderly woman who couldn't even remember her children's name would remember the details of her favourite song when it was played; how it made her feel and things about the song that made it especially memorable for them.

Further, music can unite people for a cause and changes the world. A song with good lyric and striking deep chord can stimulate the universal feeling of all people. We can see it in the case of the famous social song. It can arouse humanism of a lot people in this world. So what would the world be like without music? It would be lonely.
