

Add - or a preposition

1. She entered..... college after finishing high school.
2. He is married his high school sweetheart.
3. She is goodplaying the piano.
4. I am fed up this noisy city life.
5. He is keen traveling to new places.
6. She was pleased her test results.
7. The book belongs the library down the street.
8. We arrived New York City last night.
9. I had to choose chicken or fish for dinner.
10. My parents always arguepolitics.
11. Let's discuss..... modern fashion.
12. Our train will arrive the station at 9 pm.
13. They were laughing a joke their friend told.
14. She pays her groceries in cash.
15. He askeddirections to the nearest bus stop.
16. She is fond reading romance novels.
17. I am excited my upcoming vacation plans.
18. She loves to spend money designer clothes.
19. The old house reminded me my childhood home.
20. Our plans depend.....the weather forecast for tomorrow.