

Unit 2, Lesson 5

Deforestation

A. Instructions: Identify if the following opinions are FOR or AGAINST Deforestation.

	1. Deforestation destroys the habitats of many animals.
	2. Wood is needed by many people in building things.
	3. Where trees have been cut down, new ones may be replanted.
	4. Even if trees are replanted, they take years to grow back.
	5. It provides jobs to people who work in forest clearing.

B. Instructions: Read the questions, then choose the correct answer.

1. Which of the following happens because of deforestation?
 - a. More habitats for forest animals
 - b. Increase in global temperature
 - c. Cleaner air
2. This happens when we destroy the forest by cutting down trees.
 - a. Reforestation
 - b. Deforestation
 - c. Global Warming
3. What do we call the gases that trap heat energy from the sun?
 - a. Noble gases
 - b. Factory gases
 - c. Greenhouse gases
4. Which of the following refers to the rise in global temperature as a result of deforestation?
 - a. Greenhouse effect
 - b. Drought
 - c. Global Warming
5. Which of the following should be done to avoid Global Warming?
 - a. Deforestation
 - b. Reforestation
 - c. Mining

Unit 2, Lesson 6

Air Pollution

A. Instructions: Choose the things that causes air pollution.

