

Shopping at the Grocery Store

1. Watch the video.

2. Match the words with their definition.

Grocery	a long curved fruit with a yellow skin
Various	a container with a wide mouth and a lid
Flour	a fine powder made by grinding grains, used in baking
Jar	different kinds or types
Bananas	a store that sells food and other household items

3. Read the sentences and write TRUE or FALSE.

The customer bought a dozen eggs, a loaf of white bread, and a gallon of milk. True or False

The customer purchased a small bottle of olive oil. True or False

The customer requested a kilo of red apples. True or False

The customer wanted to buy some chips for a snack. True or False

The customer bought a frozen pizza. True or False

4. Answer the questions:

1. What items did the first customer want to buy from the grocery store?

- a) A loaf of white bread
- b) A dozen eggs
- c) Milk
- d) All of the above

2. What section of the store did the second customer and their mom visit first?

- a) Dairy
- b) Produce
- c) Fresh meat
- d) Bakery

3. How did the first customer pay for the groceries?

- a) Cash
- b) Credit card
- c) Check
- d) Debit card