

2.2

Grammar

I can use comparative and superlative adjectives.

The green bag is the best

George and Harry's mum and Gran Bertie are going out.

Gran: Oh, no! There's a [redacted] in my bag!
 Mum: Mum, this bag is [redacted] I am!
 I think you need a [redacted].
 Gran: You're right, but you know [redacted] shopping, dear! Let's go.
 Mum: Bye, boys!
 Harry: Bye!
 George: [redacted]!

1

2

George: Let's buy Gran a new bag [redacted] her birthday!
 Harry: Good idea! [redacted] bags ... [redacted]
 George: How about the yellow one?
 Harry: It doesn't look big. Gran likes big bags. And it's £100.
 George: I like the red bag too. It's [redacted] and bigger than the yellow one.
 Harry: It's £80! We've only got £50.
 George: Hmm ... Let's try another [redacted].
 Harry: The green one is the best. It's the most stylish and the [redacted] too. Only £25!
 George: I [redacted].

A few days later ...

3

Mum: I think it's for you, boys.
 Harry: Thanks, Mum. [redacted] present! Let's see ...
 I don't [redacted] with!