

The Veterinarian

Most veterinarians take care of animals and help animal owners to take care of them. They give animals medicines that protect them against diseases, treat and dress wounds. Vets also perform surgery and advise owners about animal feeding and care.

What tools/ things do you think a veterinarian would use?
Select below.

