

CAREER

Read the following paragraph carefully about two colleagues. Underline interesting points in the text.

Julya and David are psychologists. Their daily routines focus on connecting with people and helping them address their emotional challenges. During sessions Julya stands out for her ability to establish empathic connections. On the other hand, David brings an analytical and decisive perspective to her daily practice. Outside of the sessions, both collaborate as a team, sharing experiences about research, supporting their work with dedication.

After reading the paragraph, discuss the following questions in groups of 3 and speak for 2 minutes.

- What Julya and David do in their daily routines?
- What does Julya and David stand out for?
- What job or career do they do? Describe?
